

THE NKECHI TAIFA EXPERIENCE!

Be mesmerized by Nkechi Taifa in her various capacities as attorney, activist, author, or educator – She has the expertise and skills to not only WOW, but also emPOWER, your audience, listeners, or viewers.

- Civil/Human Rights Attorney
- Nationally Recognized Commentator
- Motivational Speaker
- Taifa - The Ideal Race and Justice Subject Matter Expert for your Newsroom!
- Taifa - A Captivating and Charismatic Speaker for your Next Event!

Described by Actor Danny Glover as “a brilliant lawyer and an extraordinary champion for justice.”

Lauded in Essence Magazine as one of the “100 Woke Black Women Advocating for Change”

Taifa described in People's Magazine as “planting seeds for future generations”

READ THE ARTICLE

Dynamo Event Speaker!

Let Nkechi Taifa help empower your institution, company or membership as your next Convention or Commencement Speaker, Keynote Address, University or College Lecture, or MC!

Taifa's motivational speaking is captivating. Her customized, innovative and interactive presentations are accentuated by her high energy and creative style.

Nkechi's List of Selected Speaking Venues

View Selected Videos of Taifa's 2021 Speaking Engagements

"As the granddaughter of a lynching victim, I was truly blown away by your speech on reparations, and quite frankly have NEVER heard a more compelling explanation and historical presentation! I believe it is a message everyone should and must hear!"
-CRYSTAL CHARLEY-SIBLEY, NAACP NJ STATE CONFERENCECONVENTION CHAIR

"Taifa is blessed with the rare ability to connect with leaders and constituencies from a broad range of circles, from community-based, grassroots organizations, to the halls of Congress to the White House in pursuit of a righteous cause."
-RON DANIELS

Nkechi Taifa is president and CEO of The Taifa Group LLC, convenes the Justice Roundtable coalition and serves as Senior Fellow for the Center for Justice at Columbia University. Over the course of her career, she has worked for the Open Society Foundations, ACLU, Women's Legal Defense Fund, Howard University School of Law, National Prison Project, and Washington Office on Africa. She has taught popular seminars on Law, Race and Justice and has litigated high-profile civil and criminal cases as a private practitioner in DC and federal court. A passionate and visionary professional, Nkechi enjoys decades of experience as an accomplished justice system reform strategist and advocacy. She excels at advancing creative, cutting-edge approaches that encourage out-of-the-box thinking and action. The wealth of her experiences has allowed her to pursue justice from different vantage points – as a litigator, lobbyist, scholar, advocate, policy analyst, community organizer, convener and grant-maker. She received her BA from Howard University, and Juris Doctor from George Washington University Law School.

She provides expert commentary on race and justice issues, including:

- Criminal justice reform
- Reparations for African Americans
- Mass Incarceration and War on Drugs
- Police Abuse and Law enforcement Accountability
- High Profile cases

Nkechi has been featured by...

Best-Seller Author

Taifa describes her best-seller memoir, Black Power, Black Lawyer: My Audacious Quest for Justice as “part memoir, part textbook, part study guide, and part expose! It teaches, preaches, rhapsodizes, and tantalizes, stitching suspense, calamity, humor and wit into a tapestry of history, politics, law, culture and romance.

A master storyteller, Taifa is the author of three classics for children: Shining Legacy, The Adventures of Kojo and Ama, and Three Tales of Wisdom

www.nkechitaifa.org
www.blackpowerblacklawyer.com
www.thetaifagroup.com

nkechi@thetaifagroup.com

 /ntaifa
 @nkechitaifa
 /nkechitaifa
 @nkechi_taifa

Connect Today!